Read to a Therapy Dog - Wednesdays at 4pm

Tales to Tails with Zeb is an excellent way for students to practice their reading skills. Numerous studies have indicated the mental, emotional, and physical benefits of utilizing therapy dogs for literacy programs. Because therapy dogs can reduce stress and provide a heightened sense of safety for some children, they are a great way for new or reluctant readers to gain confidence reading aloud or to help moving bodies find peace while listening to a story. Zeb is trained to listen patiently and without judgement, and he loves to meet new friends!

After School Snack - Every School Day 3:30 - 4:30

The Weld Food Bank provides free after school snacks to the Eaton community every school day. The Library provides activities and a safe supervised environment for children and teenagers to come unwind after the school day. Staff are available to provide homework help during this time.
